

HELP!

NOBODY'S LISTENING TO ME (STILL!)

A LISTENING SKILLS TRAINING DAY

A training event for Christians around Preston to develop listening skills for use in church and community settings as times get harder.

Saturday 12th November 2011

from 9am for registration till 4pm

at Fulwood FREE Methodist Church
LIGHTFOOT LANE, PRESTON PR2 3LT

- ✓ All welcome (regardless of whether you attended our introductory evening event in July or not)
- ✓ Aimed at people who want to develop their listening skills further
- ✓ Equally suited to people who at this point don't want to train as a counsellor and for people who are interested in counselling training in the future.
- ✓ The training will be delivered by qualified counsellors from the Free Methodist Counselling Team.

"My dear brothers and sisters,
take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak..." James 1:19

Suggested donation £15 includes training, notes & buffet lunch.
Feel free to give what is appropriate to your circumstances.
(Perhaps you can ask your church for support?)

To secure your place please email: pcan@maister-smith.fsnet.co.uk

or call Greg Smith on 01772 827987.

Please let us know if you have any dietary requirements.

For more information contact:

Greg Smith, PCAN Tel: 01772 827987 or Email: pcan@maister-smith.fsnet.co.uk
or see www.pcan.org.uk

Event organised by PCAN and Crossover Volunteering is supported by Methodist Action, Church Urban Fund & HOPE Preston

Methodist Action
Preston in Central Lancashire Ltd

